Fatal Explosions and Fire.

A disastrious fire, accompanied by serious loss of life, occurred early yesterday evening in the fireworks establishment of Heyer Brothers, Boston. Three dead bodies have been taken from the ruine, and three persons received injuries which will probably result fataliy. It is feared that there may be more victims among the debris. Shortly after five o'clock, while a salesman was waiting on a customer upon the second floor, he saw a flash from some fireworks behind one of the counters, unaccompanied, by an explosion. He ran for water, and at the same time giving the alarm. The flames shot with almost incredible rapidity, cutting off the escape of several of the men in the upper stories, and within five minutes the dense smoke and almost incessant discharge of fireworks of different kinds made in the building a perfect pandemonium for those confined within its walls. Edward Heyer, one of the firm, ran to the stairs shouting fire, then turned back to lock the safe, but found the way choked with smoke. He found the way choked with smoke. He groped his way to the window, and managed to climb to an adjoining building unhurt. Charles Albert Sage, aged twenty, who was employed in the third story, hung from a window until he was obliged to release his hold, then fell to the ground, striking two awnings in his descent, breaking his back. He will probably die. Charles F. Callahan and Thomas Paine, packers, who were working on the fourth floor, jumped from a window in their fright. Paine was killed while Callahan's injuries are most likely fatal. William Brenenstuhl, who was on the second floor, did good service in checking the ond floor, did good service in checking the flames but in going for more water lost his way and rolled down the stairs, and was picked up badly injured. He is also burned internally by smoke and it is feared that he cannot live. A body which was taken from the building to the North Grove street morgue, was recognized by Mr. Heyer as Samuel Cord, the chief packer, who was one

Samuel Cord, the chief packer, who was one of the oldest employes of the firm. Another body, that of a boy, was also taken to the morgue, where it has not yet been identified. It is charred and burned so badly identification will be difficult. The firm employed about twenty or twenty-five men and boys at the present time, and were busy with their holiday trade. They carried a stock of $100,000 worth of fireworks and $50,000 to $60,000 worth of fency works and $50,000 to $60,000 worth of fency goods. A large portion of the stock is ruined, although the loss is not total. The firm is well insured. During the fire the discharge of fireworks sounded as if a hard-fought battle was in progress, and for nearly two hours was heard the rattle of small mus ketry, interspersed at frequent intervals with the heavier reports of the larger pieces, while sparks and an occasional rocket would shoot from the windows. These explosions created great consternation among the spectators. The fire was entirely confined to the one building, and it was a singular fact that scarcely any flames came from the windows until after the firemen had the fire under control. The interior of the building was completely riddled, but the walls were left standing. There was no gunpowder stored on the premises, and no smoking was allowed, and the cause of the fire is a mys-

A NEGRO SHOT TO DEATH,-Andy Caldwell, a negro, yesterday morning attempted to tavish Mrs. Beckham, a respectable woman, at her home, near Ridgewater, S. C. Mrs Beckham's daughter took a gun and tried to shoot the man, but it failed to fire. The negro then wrested the gun away from the girl and shot her in the leg. He then went to Ridgewater and created a disturance in a store there, when the proprietor shot at him and he ran off. The sheriff, who was on the lookout for Caldwell, capwho was on the lookout for Caldwell, cap-tured him and took him to Winnsboro, where a guard from the State Lunatic Asy-lum took charge of the negro to bring him to Columbia. Near Rockton, a body of forty men took Caldwell from the guard and shot him to death. The negro was an es caped lunatic, and had been allowed to remain at large for awhile on trial, but yesterday morning the sheriff had telegraphed to the asylum authorities to send up a guard for him at once, believing Caldwell to be dangerous.
